

Didn't Apply To You

words & music by John Dandrea, 08/2012

verse 1 whatever you do, don't say you know and don't you say "I told you so" but after all is said and done I guess I just wasn't the one verse 2 whatever you do, don't apologize don't let me see the tears in your eyes it doesn't change the bottom line in the end, you're no longer mine chorus whatever was wrong, whatever was right I tried to be there through the night I said I'd always be faithful and true guess that just didn't apply to you verse 3 whatever you do, I'll try to take it well I'll never let you see that it's been hell it's about just being happy for you and I'll just have another round or two

chorus whatever was wrong, whatever was right
I tried to be there through the night
I said I'd always be faithful and true
guess that just didn't apply to you
