

To Be Near You Again

words & music by John Dandrea, 10/2019

verse 1 hand in hand, together every day guess I never understood your hundred-acre wood seems I've known you forever and a day and when I hear your laughter I'll always follow after chorus we will laugh, and we'll run in the sunshine and these moments will last us a lifetime

and even when the sun sets upon our lives when it's time to say our goodbyes I'll long to be near you again -
to be near you again

verse 2 you and I, will never be apart we will live like we should,
in your hundred-acre wood as you're bouncing happily along I'll be up in the trees getting honey from the bees
